Empowering Our Youth: Building a Stronger Tomorrow

Friday 27th December 2024 - Jumada ath -Thaniya 25 1446 AH

Harrow Central Mosque is steadfast in its mission to make the House of Allah a welcoming space for our youth—a place where they smile, have fun, make friends, and grow into exemplary Muslims. With this vision, we proudly launched Harrow Muslim Youth (HMY).

Recent Successes

PS5 Tournament

Last month, HMY hosted an exciting PS5 Tournament, drawing 100 young participants to the masjid. The event combined gaming fun with the essence of togetherness as attendees prayed in congregation and enjoyed delicious pizza.

Weekly Boys' Youth Club

We are thrilled to see the success of our Boys' Youth Club, held every Saturday at 6:30 PM in the Dome Hall. Boys participate in activities like indoor football, table tennis, badminton, PlayStation, and pool. Alongside refreshments, they benefit from inspiring reminders delivered by our young Imam, Shaykh Sahibzada Owais Khan.

Indoor Cricket

For sports enthusiasts, we've launched weekly indoor cricket sessions every Sunday at 2:00 PM in the Dome Hall. This initiative has quickly gained popularity, providing a platform for fun, fitness, and fellowship.

'Salah in Palestine' Winter Retreat

One of our most remarkable recent events was the 2-day, 1-night retreat. This was the largest retreat of its kind in our mosque's history, attracting participants from across London and the UK. The retreat blended deen-focused workshops with engaging activities such as archery.

Attendees cherished the family-like environment, deepened their knowledge of Islam, and fostered lifelong friendships. Feedback from parents has been overwhelmingly positive, with many sharing how their teenage sons are still reflecting on the experience and eagerly awaiting the next retreat.

Looking Ahead to 2025

While our current initiatives have been met with resounding success, we are excited to expand even further in 2025. Planned activities include: A Girls' Youth Club, Martial Arts Classes, Workshops on various topics, Outdoor Activities and much more!

We invite you to be part of this journey.
